OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR
NOTICE TO ALL NUL MEMBERS OF STAFF AND STUDENTS
REF/ REG/ADM1.75-2019/19
RESUMPTION OF LECTURES

Staff and Students of the National University of Lesotho are informed that at its 371st Special meeting dated 3rd September, 2019; Senate was presented with the report on assessment of the riots situation and vacation of students from the National University of Lesotho – Roma campus on Friday 30th August, 2019.

After lengthy and thorough consideration of the issues of concern, Senate resolved that:

- a) Students should resume lectures on Monday 9th September, 2019.
- b) Students should be allowed to report to the National University of Lesotho starting from Saturday 7th September, 2019.
- c) For this semester short break will not be available to students as it will be used as part of the academic recovery plan.
- d) Lecturers should support students if they have to proceed to the National Manpower Development (NMDS) for renewal of contracts.
- e) The University Management has to own its responsibility by requesting NMDS to fast-track the process of issuing allowances to students.
- f) Lecturers were requested to be well prepared and supportive to the students.

Thank you.
